

THAMES VALLEY EARLY MUSIC FORUM

INVITATION

Fayrfax 500 – friends and patrons

An illustrated talk by Patrick Craig

Tuesday 13th July 8pm

Including music by Taverner, Cornysh and Ludford.

Robert Fayrfax died in 1521, and in this talk Patrick will celebrate his spellbinding contribution to early Tudor music in this his anniversary year. We shall view his work at the Chapel Royal through the prism of his friends and admirers including Nicholas Ludford, John Taverner and William Cornysh. Patrick will also explore the network of patrons who supported him, including Henry VII's wife, Elizabeth of York and Henry VIII's Chancellor, Thomas Wolsey. He led the English musicians at the great political and cultural summit meeting with the French at the Field of the Cloth of Gold in 1520.

Patrick has performed much of Fayrfax's music with The Cardinal's Musick and recorded many of his masses with them in Arundel Castle early on in his career. It will be a delight for him to revisit the music of this most spectacular composer.
